

Benefits of Membership

Your annual membership fee is your ticket for access and significant savings on:

- IAHQ Annual Conference: The 2019 conference, Innovation in Quality and Safety Across the Care Continuum, had a keynote address from internationally recognized Lean expert and author, Mark Graban; an update on the direction the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services is taking on quality improvement; local solutions to the national opioid crisis; understanding data to make better decision; how to build and maintain a 5-star rated home health agency and what the Medicare requirements are; and a look at the future of value-based purchasing from the Blue Cross Blue Shield Association.
 - Participation in the Annual Quality and Safety poster competition and awards
 - Access to workshops with leading experts and practitioners, such as 2019's Measure of Success workshop with Mark Graban, based on his new book, Measures of Success: React Less, Lead Better, Improve More (book included)
 - Annual CPHQ Exam Preparation and Review courses
 - Four to six live webinars with free CPHQ CE credit annually.
 - Semi-monthly IAHQ News
 - Other offerings and in-person events are being planned.
 - Member-only access to webinar recordings such as:
 - What CAN you do? Making improvements when you don't think you can.
 - The ECRI Institute Top Patient Safety Concerns Report
 - Using the Leapfrog Hospital Survey to Drive Quality Improvement
 - Managing the opioid crisis: Reducing Opioid Prescribing at Hospital Discharge in General Surgery
 - Controlling blood pressure: how do we get there?
- More webinars are being planned on topics such as, new primary care management models, managing chronic kidney disease, venous thromboembolism prevention, diabetes management, vaccines, diagnostic error and others*
- Access to IAHQ's new member-only discussion forum for members to share information and learn from peers on timely quality and safety issues that arise every day.